

NOW IS THE TIME FOR US ALL TO SOAR TO BE ALL WE CAN BE! ALL WE CAME HERE TO BE!

Dear Reader

Well the world certainly is churning and turning at the moment and for many it seems too much. Just this morning a good friend of ours who normally brushes all things off the way water falls from a ducks back, said "stop the world I want to get off!"

At times like these I, Phoebe, hum a little tune and let it become my mantra..."Always going forward, cos we can't find reverse!" followed by "this too shall pass!" and soon I am laughing at my silliness and a feeling of rightness settles back on myself.

Paul and I were discussing just that a few days ago...feelings! If we feel a certain thing then that is how it will be because it is the act of actually being able to feel it, that brings it about, that creates things in our Universe. Now we are talking about feelings here that pervade every cell in your body and are therefore what we would call knowings. So we can want all we want but until we can actually feel how it would feel to have that certain thing or whatever it is you want in this moment right now ...then it won't happen or it could take a heck of a long time to come in to reality.

Just picture the whole world "knowing" that we have peace and balance on this planet and in our hearts!

It is a time on our planet right now and in our Universe that positive energies as well as negatives energies, mind you the negative side may not see it that way, are pushing us to evolve and raise our vibrational energies, our frequency as high as we can. How do we do that? You create the world with your thoughts unless of course you think that you don't in which case you won't and so you did! Think about that!,,,and lol! and why would we do that? Here is a link that may clarify why for you and what is happening to all of us right now and the planet. As always view and make up your own mind.

Now is the time for us all to come together and create communities of positive vibration and light. To find our families of light and like mindedness. Do we all have to have the same exact beliefs...NO! We do need to be working towards love of all things and beings on the planet and beyond, caring for the Earth and its inhabitants and striving for balance. YOU/We are no longer a solo voice in the world. People from all corners of the Earth have had enough and are coming together to create positive change against seemingly insurmountable odds. But the odds are in the favor of the people and always have been.

REMEMBER we out number those who in power would choose to harm us 100,000,000/1 and they are running scared because we are beginning to awaken en masse. This is not a time to be normal or average. If it was so great to be this way the world would not be in the state it is. It is time to celebrate your uniqueness, who you truly are and the gifts you bring into the world. To be courageous and step out with a heart filled with love and compassion for all things especially yourself.

Onward..lol!

As some of you may know we have postponed our Desert Dreaming Journey until May next year 2014. The timing was just not working for September and so now for those who felt they had to miss out you now have until December 8th to jump in on the EARLY BIRD SPECIAL. Everything is the same as before just the dates have changed. Here is the flyer and the registration form.

and the new video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FKMOBc-3rtk>

Paul and I are also open to monthly payments as well, all you have to do is contact us and ask. We would like to make it as easy as possible for you to join us. It will be a wonderful experience and we would love to share it with YOU.

Four participants who joined up for September 2013 are still on board for May 2014 so in reality there are only four more places left to fill.

For those who are still with us from September Journey you can pay any remaining balances on or before the 8th December 2013. Please contact us if you have any queries.
